

Fernando Perez

As an Audiovisual Producer/Director, Fernando is passionate about transforming any story, idea or project into a visual reality, capturing unique and unrepeatable moments that highlight the individuality of each subject.

His work delves into the depths of human experience and he possesses an innate ability to connect with each person or organization while respecting their culture, values and traditions.

Fernando deeply believes in the power of storytelling to foster empathy and connection.

Fernando is passionate about being part of Grant's Crusade, as it gives him the opportunity to meet incredible people, make a meaningful difference, and honor Grant's memory. This cause is deeply important to him, and he is committed to supporting its mission to create a lasting impact.